Your Alarm Now is an eminent home security systems company that is dedicated to providing round the clock protection to homes throughout Canada and the United States. The company has launched a new advanced security system that can provide 24x7 security to the household without any involvement of a landline telephone connection. This Elite Package has a monthly fee of $44.99. Your Alarm Now has two more security packages known as the basic package and the premium package. The company made its appearance in the market just a few months ago. However, they have quickly become a household name by providing top class security service for affordable price.

Over 90% of the traditional home security systems rely heavily on landline telephone connection. However, these security systems have some serious limitations. The biggest disadvantage is that the entire package stops functioning when the telephone lines are down. This can be crucial as the intruders can easily break-in during those periods when the entire system is non functional. Talking about the new offering from the company, the owner of Your Alarm Now Mr. Paul Shakuri said, "This package has been built with all the latest features. It uses digital cellular technology to connect to your nearest ADT monitoring station immediately. Now you don't need a landline telephone anymore to enjoy our service". He also added that the chances of a security incident are much less because the system works all the time, thanks to the cellular technology.

Your Alarm Now offers two more excellent packages named the basic and premium package. All these packages are equipped with top class devices with user friendly features. Their pet immune motion detectors and remote keychain control devices are two of the most popular features of their home security systems. The customers have also appreciated the highly professional service provided by Mr. Shakuri and his highly talented team of experts. Tanya Stevens, a customer of Your Alarm Now, highly applauded them saying, "What I like most is that they were not pushy, and instead listened to my concerns and helped make my buying decision easy".

About the Company: Your Alarm Now is a premium home security systems manufacturer that operates throughout Canada and America. The company has recently launched their Elite package to serve households without a landline phone.
