

6 Strategies To Get And Stay Employed

George H. Schofield, PhD

So you can take control of your work life and get the money and personal satisfaction you want and need.

Action Guide

(Use one Action Guide for each company that you research.)

What are my priorities? (circle all that apply)

- money
- health insurance
- routine and structure
- maintaining or creating your ideal lifestyle
- companionship, community, or belonging
- having a sense of purpose
- enjoying the stimulation that work can bring
- other _____

Business Name:

Industry:

Startup, Young Business, or Mature Business?:

Recent Hiring Information:

6 Strategies To Get And Stay Employed

George H. Schofield, PhD

So you can take control of your work life and get the money and personal satisfaction you want and need.

Action Guide

(Use one Action Guide for each company that you research.)

Who I Know That Works Here:

Who I know, who knows someone, who works here:

Who has been hired recently, and why?

What opening may be on the horizon for this company?

What skills does this company appear to need?

Which of my skills are a match?

What kind of additional education or training might I need?

6 Strategies To Get And Stay Employed

George H. Schofield, PhD

So you can take control of your work life and get the money and personal satisfaction you want and need.

Action Guide

(Use one Action Guide for each company that you research.)

How will I need to package and present myself that shows of my unique skills, abilities, and offerings?

What priorities am I INFLEXIBLE about?

What priorities am I FLEXIBLE with?

How interested am I to pursue this company and why?

Given my priorities and needs, what are my short- and long-term goals with this company?