EMBASSY SUITES TAMPA HOTEL ANNOUNCES HIRE OF NEW SALES MANAGER

The Embassy Suites Tampa Airport Westshore Hotel has hired Monica Helenek, who will oversee the Corporate and Association Market at the hotel. To celebrate her hiring, the Tampa hotel offers a meeting deal.

Tampa, FL – One of the best Tampa, Westshore hotels around, the Embassy Suites Tampa Airport Westshore is proud to announce the hire of a new sales manager. Monica Helenek joins the Tampa hotel team and will serve as the Corporate Sales Manager.

Monica Helenek graduated from Florida State University, double majoring in finance and hospitality. After working with Fidelity Investments for two years, she decided to accept a position with the Hyatt Regency Tampa. There, she worked as a Sales & Marketing assistant for two more years, where she honed her marketing and business skills. After her time at the Hyatt Regency, she left to join the team at one of the best hotels near Tampa Airport—the Embassy Suites Tampa Westshore Hotel.

“We are very excited to have Monica as a key part of our sales team,” said Allyson Garcia, Director of Sales and Marketing. “The excitement and hunger she brings to the table will prove positive for her own success in this industry as well as for the hotel. We are determined to succeed in the new year and her presence will provide the necessary drive we need to accomplish that.”

To celebrate this new hire, the Embassy Suites Tampa hotel announces a special deal, sure to please those searching for Tampa meeting space. New group stays between January 1, 2012, and May 31, 2012 will enjoy $200 off their Tampa meeting space rental and 20% off the hotel’s best available rate.
