Seasons Studios, the company that Dr. Elson Haas created with long-time collaborator and partner, Bethany Argisle, worked with Mobile App developer RipplFX to create the sing- and dance-along songs as Apps that are presented by Dr. Sun (the name Dr. Haas uses when he works with children) and his crew to help children learn about their bodies and overall health. Seasons Studios just released an APP ALBUM with nine interactive songs based on their CD and songbook entitled Anatomix Comix™.

Each ANATOMIX COMIX song covers a major part of the human anatomy or body system:

- Let's Be Doctors
- Muscle Man
- B-B-B-B-Bones
- Breathe In, Breathe Out
- Thump Thump
- Chew Chew
- You've Got a Lotta Nerves
- Give Me Some Skin
- Finally Feet

In the tradition of Walt Disney's Silly Symphony, these animated songs, co-written by Dr. Sun, are upbeat and informative. The interactive visuals offer simple tips about maintaining a healthy body. Join Dr Sun and the Sunspots—NOW available on the iPad™ for $4.99 each and iPhone®/iPod Touch for $1.99 each on the Apple Store.
