

Coverbind Corporation® partners with UNC Wilmington
Providing career opportunities to students

WILMINGTON, NC (Jan. 5, 2012) — Coverbind Corporation®, an innovative, international company dedicated to providing top quality business solutions for professional document finishing, has announced today that it has partnered with the University of North Carolina Wilmington's Cameron School of Business to provide career opportunities to current and future students, filling multiple positions available at Coverbind.

In response to the growth at Coverbind, the company is excited to partner with the education community to obtain talented people to grow the team and, ultimately, the students' careers. The first position will be a Junior Regional Manager offered exclusively to a UNCW student. The Junior Regional Manager will have a sales hunter mentality and be responsible for establishing business opportunities for the company in a timely manner, selling product solutions, negotiating contracts and proposals, and more. Coverbind will continue to grow their sales team both inside and outside direct, providing a stable environment that will allow the candidates to grow into sales, management or executive level positions.

"We are thrilled to partner with UNCW. With Coverbind being involved in our community, we are able to provide the wonderfully smart and talented people being educated at UNCW with career opportunities and advancements that we obviously benefit from as well," said John Davis, General Manager and Executive Vice President of Coverbind.

Applications will be accepted through Jan. 13, 2012 with telephone interviews beginning Jan. 18. Face-face interviews will be conducted on the UNCW campus with final candidates invited to the Coverbind site for a tour of the facility and a presentation of Coverbind by executive management. Applications should be sent to Amanda Wiseman at amanda.wiseman@coverbind.com.
