FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JW MARRIOTT SAN FRANCISCO UNION SQUARE HOTEL UNVEILS
THE NEW PACIFIC CONFERENCE CENTER

Innovative Design and Unique Amenities Guarantee Satisfaction

San Francisco, CA – The JW Marriott San Francisco Union Square Hotel is pleased to introduce the new Pacific Conference Center with completely redesigned meeting rooms. Located on-property, with its own distinct entrance, this premier boutique meeting Center boasts five renovated conference rooms with endless service offerings. The Pacific Conference Center's facilities coupled with the JW Marriott's commitment to exceptional service are positioned to deliver impressive results.

At present, the Pacific Conference Center is officially the only hotel conference center located in San Francisco proper. The Center's meeting rooms are ideally suited for a group of 10-30 people per room and provide the perfect environment to host hi-tech think tanks, brainstorming sessions, executive board meetings, depositions, and countless other meeting formats. With every detail, from individually crafted food and beverage menus to unique all-inclusive San Francisco meeting packages, tailored to the request of each client, the Pacific Conference Center will provide guests with a luxury corporate experience.

The new Center space, encompassing five meeting rooms, offers:

- A dedicated meeting concierge available to support guests' every need
- Flexible and private conference rooms, all self-contained within the Center
- White "erase" walls and smartboards to capture interactive genius
- LCD and LED projectors and large image screens built into conference rooms
- Ceiling mounted speakers to compliment audio quality
- WiFi high-speed internet capabilities in all conference rooms
- Easy access touch panel in-wall controls for AV
- Ergonomic chairs designed for comfort, ease and mobility
- Hard top work tables and wall surfaces
- Plush earth tone carpets, sound absorbing area rugs, and tasteful wall design elements
