The Canadian home security systems customers of Elite Security Services can now avail the benefits of the advanced Elite package from the company. The company has recently come up with this package throughout the country after receiving excellent market response for their other two security packages.

Noted American home security systems Company named Elite Security Services continue their impressive progress in the Canadian domestic security industry. The company has now launched their most advanced package of home protection in Canada. This new home security plan called the Elite Package has excellent features that made it the preferred choice for homeowners in the United States. It may be recalled that the basic and the premium package from Elite Security Services has already been able to impress the customers in Canada. They are now providing home security solutions to all parts of Canada and America including the smaller towns and rural areas.

The Elite Package of home security systems from the company makes life easy for homeowners with excellent features. All the latest technological advancements in this field have been made available for customers in this package. Mr. Paul Shakuri, a respected domestic security consultant and owner of the company, spoke in detail about the package during the official launch. He opined that “This package is the ultimate security solution for you in the present market. The sophisticated cellular back up system completely eliminates the requirement of a land line telephone”. This technology has helped millions of households without a basic telephone to secure their home. It is also a known fact that miscreants tend to deactivate security systems by cutting the telephone connections before breaking in. This package is miles ahead of ordinary security systems because it can not be deactivated by an outsider.

This package is now available all over Canada for a monthly fee of $44.99. Many homeowners in Canada have already installed this package. Samuel from Halifax expressed his excitement about this amazing package saying, “I thank Elite Security for putting together such a brilliant home security package. Would love to do business again with them”. The company sources have informed that the home security systems from them will have more technological enhancements very soon.

About the Company: The American security systems dealer Elite Security Services provides top class home security solutions in Canada and the United States. They are also an active associate of Protect Your Home.
