

A Little About Us

INTERACTYX company history

We proudly provide you social LMS,

Interactyx provides innovative learning management solutions to the global market. Since 1995, Interactyx has worked with learning providers, including prestigious educational institutions, to develop engaging learning solutions. With the emergence of Web 2.0 technologies, Interactyx is at the forefront of developing eLearning solutions that engage and communicate knowledge-sharing activities with learners. Through the use of Web 2.0 technologies, our eLearning solutions are paving the way in meeting the needs of today's learner.

As the Company expanded to North America, the Interactyx portfolio diversified into eLearning solutions and learning management systems (LMS). By understanding the needs of learners and training professionals, Interactyx developed the ultimate social learning software solution – TOPYX®. TOPYX is taking eLearning to the next level, delivering a better way to educate and learn that integrates the traditional functionality of LMSs and new Web 2.0 technology for superior results for both trainer and learner.

TOPYX is an award winning, easy-to-use LMS software as a service (SaaS) platform with integrated social learning, content management and eCommerce functionality fulfilling the modern online learning and communication needs for businesses, academic departments, and associations of any size. We've taken the traditional LMS and added tools similar to Facebook® and LinkedIn®.

Interactyx has offices in the United States, United Kingdom and Canada serving clients, affiliates and channel partners around the world.
