

Elite Security Service's Home Security Systems with Advanced Motion Detection Device Makes its Appearance in Canada

The Canadian customers of Elite Security Services can now enjoy the benefits of the new motion detection device by installing their home security systems. This new device has gained immense popularity in the United States over the last few months. The pet immune gadget will now be a part of all packages offered by the company in Canada.

Elite Security Services has enhanced their home security systems in Canada by launching an advanced motion detection equipment in the country. The company already offers this device with all their packages in the United States. This pet immune motion detector has played a stellar role in the success of the company in America. Home protection enthusiasts may remember that the company started offering their service a few months ago and has made phenomenal impact in the market since then. Elite Security Services is now expanding rapidly in Canada and plans to offer their packages in all parts of the country very soon.

Motion detection is an integral function of home security systems. However, traditional detection devices can sometimes be unreliable because of false alarms. These false alarms can be triggered by the pet animals whenever they come close to the detection system. The new device from Elite Security Systems can distinguish efficiently between movements of animals and human beings. The device completely eliminates false alarms for pets weighing below 80 kilograms. Announcing the launch, the company owner Mr. Paul Shakuri said, "This device is equipped with the highly advanced dual lens technology and has been included in our packages for families that love pets". Security industry experts have mentioned that this enhancement will help the company increase their market share in the coming months.

Elite Security Services currently has three packages of home security systems named the basic, premium, and elite package. Their packages provide a perfect combination of latest features, affordable price, and exemplary workmanship. Some of the most popular devices presently offered by the company include sensors, burglar alarm, digital keypad, remote keychain control device. They have quickly become a force to reckon with in the Canadian and American market, thanks to their overall customer centric approach. The best thing about their packages is that they can provide uninterrupted protection 24 hours a day without any break whatsoever.

About the Company: Elite Security Services is a familiar home security service provider based out of Arizona, United States. The company is now making steady progress in the Canadian market. They are also an active affiliate of Protect Your Home.

Contact

Paul Shakuri

Phone: 800-599-452.

Website: <http://www.YourAlarmNow.com>