Office Suites PLUS Appoints Two New Vice Presidents

LEXINGTON, KY, February 6, 2012 – Office Suites PLUS, the ninth largest office suite provider in the world and a member of the Inc. 5000 list of fastest growing companies has appointed two tenured employees as Vice Presidents.

Brian Tucker has been appointed Vice President of Operations Support. He previously served as Director of Operations Support and has been with Office Suites PLUS for four years. “I am very excited to take on the additional responsibilities of the position” said Mr. Tucker. “The industry continues to evolve with technological advancements and variable workplace solutions. I look forward to supporting and further developing Office Suites PLUS as an industry leader.” His undergraduate degree is from the University of Kentucky and has his MBA from Morehead State University.

Tena Adams, a seven year employee of Office Suites PLUS, has been appointed Vice President and Controller. In her previous role, Ms. Adams served as Corporate Controller. Of her appointment she said: “I’m very excited about the opportunity and look forward to getting more involved in areas outside of accounting.” Ms. Adams is a graduate of the University of Kentucky and is a licensed CPA.

“Tena and Brian have been great assets to the Office Suites PLUS team, and are integral to us being able to offer flexible workspace for organizations” said Chief Executive Officer James C. Baughman, Jr. “They are true industry leaders who work hard to make sure we are providing the best services to our clients, and support to our employees. I look forward to their continued leadership within the Office Suites PLUS organization.”

Both appointments were effective January 1, 2012.

Office Suites PLUS provides workspace solutions that include furnished offices, shared workspaces, meeting rooms, mail receipt, telephone services, and receptionist support.
