COURTYARD SECAUCUS MEADOWLANDS HOTEL COMPLETES RENOVATIONS

The Courtyard Secaucus Meadowlands hotel finished extensive improvements to its entrance area.

Secaucus, NJ – Big changes have arrived at the Courtyard Secaucus Meadowlands Hotel. This hotel in Secaucus, NJ recently finished a number of improvements to its entrance area, including its dining area, front desk and sitting area, as well as to its meeting space.

Guests will notice changes the moment they step into this Secaucus Meadowlands hotel. New welcome pedestals have replaced the traditional front desk. This unique setup allows for greater interactivity between the guest and the hotel staff, ensuring a personable and speedy check-in.

The hotel is also proud to announce the opening of The Bistro—Eat. Drink. Connect®. This new dining concept serves delicious breakfast choices to start the mornings right. The Bistro also proudly serves freshly brewed Starbucks® coffee.

One of the best hotels in Secaucus, NJ, the Courtyard Hotel has improved its overall infrastructure with the addition of Wi-Fi throughout the lobby area, as well as the exciting new GoBoard®. The GoBoard, an enormous touch screen television, offers guests a fully interactive experience, allowing them to browse sports and news headlines, search the local area, and even get directions. These improvements, along with a new business library, create a relaxing environment for guests to relax, work and socialize.

Outside of the entrance area, guests will discover improvements to the hotel's meeting room and fitness center. The meeting room, offering 880 square feet of space, received new carpet and stylish wallpaper. The fitness center also received new flooring and wallpaper.

This Secaucus Meadowlands Hotel also renovated its guestrooms at the beginning of 2011.
