RESIDENCE INN ANDOVER HOTEL COMPLETES RENOVATIONS, ANNOUNCES REOPENING

Residence Inn Boston Andover Hotel received room enhancements during renovations and now offers more comfort than ever before.

Boston, MA – The Residence Inn Boston Andover Hotel has announced today that it is nearing completion on its improvements. This hotel near Canobie Lake Park expects to reopen by the end of January, offering guests a chance to experience the newly enhanced rooms firsthand.

The Residence Inn Andover Hotel now features a new and improved guest room experience. Existing guest rooms received fresh carpeting and flooring. Additionally, colorful room accents bring a refreshing palette to an already welcoming environment. The room enhancements also included new flat screen televisions, which supplements the new Infusion couches and chairs perfectly: guests can now recline on the modern and stylish new furniture while enjoying crisply displayed television programs.

Beyond improving existing guest rooms, this Andover hotel created an entirely new room category. The premium studio layout rooms include fully upgraded kitchens with beautiful granite countertops and new stainless steel appliances, including an oven and refrigerator. These premium accommodations allow guests to escape into a comfortable getaway, perfect for long term stays. Spacious, affordable and comfortable, this hotel near Canobie Lake Park continues to provide exceptional hospitality for guests in the Boston area.

While most of the renovations took place in the guest rooms, the lobby did receive new carpet. Furthermore, this Andover hotel plans to add new fitness equipment to its fitness center in the spring.

Guests are encouraged to plan a stay at the Residence Inn Boston Andover Hotel soon, as the hotel has reopened the end of January. Further updates to the Gatehouse and meeting rooms are expected later in 2012.
