

What is Collaborative Learning?

Individuals working together...

- capitalizing on one another's knowledge and skill,
- to solve a problem, complete a task, or create a product,
- both technically and socially, using their left and right brains and their slow thinking and fast thinking brains,
- recognizing that learning is not just an individual but also a naturally social act.