Injinji Yoga Mini-Crew Black/Charcoal Toeless Sock £17.

Introducing a toe sock designed specifically for yoga, Pilates and mat exercises. The five toe design encourages enhanced body alignment and balance while the grippers provide additional slip resistance and arch support gives stability.

Injinji Outdoor Quarter Forest Sock £16. Made using a moisture absorbing Nuwool material to prevent odour and control temperature, the outdoor range is ideal for the more adventurous athlete to keep feet at the exact temperature which ever season.

The nation is getting sportier ahead of the Olympics after recent figures suggest 6.9 million adults* now participate in sport at least 3 times a week. And, with an estimated quarter of people only using the right kit when exercising, that's a massive 5.1 million people missing out on achieving optimum performance and personal best.

Grab an athletic master-class for you feet from Injinji Performance Toe Socks, which free the toes for an all round better performance in any shoe, encouraging proper toe alignment and better posture, grip and stability when active. The patented five toe design enables the entire foot to function naturally and efficiently whilst keeping feet dry and comfortable. With a mix of Nuwool, Nylon and Lycra, the fabric is super soft and durable and provides an ultra comfortable and protective layer helping to minimise skin on skin friction to reduce blisters along with a anti-slip heel.

Injinji caters for a range of sports from yoga, Pilates and dance to running, cycling and outdoor activities. Ranging in lengths and thickness, the Injinji toe sock offers support and performance for all tastes and enthusiasts.
