TIG
Technology Integration Group.

Why TIG?

A Premier Professional Services Integrator

Providing Storage Management, Security, Managed Services, Networking, and Consulting Services

In today's business environment, we realize there are many choices when selecting a source for your business' technology needs. TIG stands out among the pack in the IT industry due to our breadth of capabilities, stability, certifications and outstanding customer satisfaction ratings. A premier Professional Services Integrator, TIG offers technology solutions to organizations nationwide, and even internationally.

A financially stable computer technology provider, TIG is a single source of IT solutions for organizations ranging from enterprise to small organizations. TIG shares with its clients, strength in over 28 years of computer system integration experience and hundreds of long-term manufacturer alliances. Always offering a personal, consultative approach to identifying and fulfilling your organization's specific computing needs, TIG customizes innovative technology that best fits your unique infrastructure requirements. Our clients confidently rely on TIG as a result of solving technology issues on time and remaining within budget.

A company you can count on:

- TIG has a proven track record of success with references worldwide.
- TIG has industry certified consultants and engineers. ITIL, HDI, ISO, PMI.
- TIG has proven processes and methodologies that can grow with your IT environment.
- TIG has industry leading SLA metrics.

- TIG offers 7x24x365 live worldwide coverage.
- TIG Best Practices approach can ensure clients their project will be done the right way the first time, every time.
- TIG has been named the Just-In-Time (J.I.T.) Supplier of the Year for our work within GSA government contracts.
- TIG has been awarded by Supplier of the Year Class III by The Southern California Minority Business Council.
- TIG consistently ranks over 96% in customer satisfaction surveys.
- TIG offers world-class Storage Management, Security, Managed Services, Networking, and Consulting Services.

Our Goals

- To lower our clients' total cost of ownership (TCO) to their distributed computing environments by providing the most practical business solutions that take advantage of the best practices and newest technologies.
- To position TIG as a leader in providing network technology and services through continuous training and certification of the newest technology in the industry.
- To continually improve customer service through awareness of our customers' needs and higher quality of service.