

The Low Cost Basic Home Security Systems Package from Elite Security Services Gains Immense Popularity in Canadian Market.

The Canadian home security systems market has responded tremendously to the recently launched basic package of domestic protection from Elite Security Services. This package offers leak proof security to the households for a monthly rental of only $35.99. The American company entered the Canadian security market few months ago.

The home security systems customers in Canada have started to show their preference towards the economical basic package of domestic surveillance from Elite Security Services. This package offers excellent features to customers for an affordable monthly rental of only $35.99 per month. It may be recalled that the Arizona based company started offering their service in Canada during the later part of the last year. They are presently providing service in all parts of the United States and Canada, and are known to be one of the most rapidly expanding security companies in the United States. Elite Security Services also offers two more highly sophisticated packages for their customers.

There is a common perception that home security systems are very expensive for a common man to afford. However, looking at the increasing crime rate in the recent years, there is no denying the fact that most households require a solid protection system for their home. Elite Security Services has designed this package taking the budget constraint of the buyers into account. Interestingly, the company has not compromised in terms of functionality of the system in order to provide a competitive rate to the home owners. The owner of Elite Security Services thanked the Canadian customers for the support stating, “You guys have been amazing so far. We did not expect so much success within such a short period of time. I take this opportunity to thank all of you for trusting us so much”.

The other two home security systems packages from Elite Security Services are relatively expensive and provide state of the art security solution to the households. These packages are tailor made to function without a telephone line or power supply. The security industry experts in Canada have forecasted that Elite Security Services is all set to become a major force in the market in the near future. Andy, one of the many satisfied customers of the company, has recommended their basic package for all households saying, “I never knew that security packages are available for such affordable price. I would love to recommend them to all my friends and relatives”.

About the Company: Elite Security Services is a rapidly growing company in the home security industry. They offer highly efficient and economical home security solutions in America and Canada.
