COURTYARD PLEASANT HILL HOTEL FINISHES $3 MILLION RENOVATION

One of the best hotels in Pleasant Hill, this Courtyard Hotel has recently finished a renovation to its guest rooms, lobby area, fitness center and meeting rooms.

Pleasant Hill, CA – The Courtyard Pleasant Hill Hotel has just finished a number of improvements to its property. One of the most comfortable hotels in Pleasant Hill, this California hotel invested $3 million into its guest rooms, lobby area, fitness center, meeting rooms, dining concept and more.

Guests at this Pleasant Hill hotel will immediately appreciate the newly added amenities to each guest room. New 9” mattresses ensure a good night’s sleep, while 32” plasma HDTVs offer a crystal clear picture and a perfect way to unwind at the end of a day. The bathrooms have received new tile, and granite countertops give guest rooms a refined and luxurious feel. Updated vinyl accents and new carpet complete the room renovations. With renovated guest rooms, the Courtyard aims to position itself as one of the most inviting Pleasant Hill hotels around.

Beyond the guest rooms, the Courtyard Pleasant Hill Hotel has also seen improvements to its lobby area, namely its new dining concept The Bistro—Eat. Drink. Connect®. This new dining area serves delicious and fresh snacks, entrees and drinks, from traditional favorites like burgers to crisp salads and finger foods. Also found in the lobby is an upgraded and improved business library, featuring computer terminals with free printer access.

Guests can also take advantage of the exclusive new GoBoard® technology. The large touch screen television offers users a chance to explore local and national headlines, sports scores, and business news and weather reports. It can even be used to find directions to nearby destinations.

The hotel upgraded its elevator system, in addition to other infrastructure improvements, such as re-slating the pool and spa floor deck and contracting with a new Internet service provider. Other improvements include an expanded exercise room and new lineless tables in the hotel's two meeting rooms.
