

Bagchi Law Founder, Neil Bagchi, Named “Legal Elite” in Business Law and a “Top 50 Entrepreneur” for 2012

Chapel Hill, North Carolina, USA (March 08, 2012) – Bagchi Law is proud to announce that the firm’s founder and managing partner, Neil Bagchi, recently received two prestigious awards from two publications. After being recognized as “Legal Elite” in Business Law for 2012 by Business North Carolina, an accolade that only three percent of North Carolina attorneys receive, Mr. Bagchi was also named a “Top 50 Entrepreneur” for 2012 by Business Leader Magazine in their Raleigh-Durham "Triangle" publication.

When asked about receiving the honors, Mr. Bagchi said, “These awards help illustrate the changing landscape of the legal industry. Our firm operates on a much leaner level than most of our competitors, and yet we still provide high-quality and effective legal services for our clients.” He continued, “Receiving the recognition of my peers in both the legal and business communities is truly an honor.”

Click here for information about the “Legal Elite” in Business Law for 2012 award from Business North Carolina, and click here for information about the “Top 50 Entrepreneur” for 2012 award from Business Leader Magazine.

###

About Bagchi Law

Located in Chapel Hill, North Carolina, Bagchi Law is a boutique corporate and transactional law firm that provides clients with high touch legal services in connection with general corporate, commercial and international transactions. The firm’s specialized experience and capabilities enable them to represent both domestic and foreign clients in matters involving U.S. and international law. For more information about the firm, visit www.BagchiLaw.com.