ANTHEM EDUCATION CAMPUSES WILL HOST OPEN HOUSES MARCH 28

Phoenix, Ariz., March 14, 2012—Twenty-one Anthem Education campuses will be hosting day-long Swing into Spring! Open Houses Wednesday, March 28. The Anthem College campus in Phoenix will hold its Open House one day earlier, on March 27.

Anthem Education trains students to prepare for careers in healthcare/allied health, business, technology, paralegal, criminal justice, and veterinary technology. Many programs, particularly those in healthcare, technology, and veterinary technology, emphasize hands-on training and demonstrations to students by instructors who work directly in the fields they teach.

Depending on the program and campus, students can earn a diploma, associate, or bachelor's degree. An MBA program is offered at one campus, Morrison University in Reno, Nevada. Not all programs are offered at all locations.

In addition, several programs are offered online through Anthem College Online.

“We know there are employers out there looking for well-qualified people to come work for them,” says Sandi Gibson, Eastern Division Vice President for Anthem Education. “At Anthem, we make sure each student graduates with the skills, capabilities, and positive attitude that can help them start a new career or advance the one they already have. In fact, we guarantee to employers that they will be more than satisfied with the Anthem graduates they hire.”

Spring is a time when many people take stock of their lives, adds Sheila Ericksen, Anthem's Western Division Vice President. “This is a time when many people think about whether or not there is more that they can do. We provide intensive support for our students, many of whom have overcome incredible obstacles to walk out with a diploma or degree and land jobs in careers they love. They're also supporting their families and showing their kids that it is possible to succeed in a job and in life.”
