An Evening with BO CALDWELL

Bestselling author of The Distant Land of My Father and City of Tranquil Light

Bo Caldwell grew up in Los Angeles and graduated from Stanford University, where she later held a Wallace Stegner Fellowship and a Jones Lectureship in Creative Writing. She has received a fellowship in literature from the National Endowment for the Arts, an Artist Fellowship from the Arts Council of Santa Clara County, the Georgia Shreve Prize in Fiction at Stanford University, and the Joseph Henry Jackson Award from the San Francisco Foundation.

Her first novel, The Distant Land of My Father, was a national bestseller, one of the Los Angeles Times' Best Books of 2001, and a Booksense 76 pick in both hardcover and paperback. Her second novel, City of Tranquil Light, was also a national bestseller, and an October 2010 Indie Next Notable and one of O Magazine's Ten Must Reads for October 2010. Her personal essays have appeared in O, The Oprah Magazine, the Washington Post Magazine, and America Magazine, and her short stories have been included in Story, Ploughshares, Epoch, and other literary journals.

She lives in Northern California with her husband, novelist Ron Hansen.
