

Now 20% Discount Available on Homeowner's Insurance for Home Security Systems Customers of Elite Security Services

A handsome 20% discount can be enjoyed now by the homeowners when they install Elite Security Service's high performance home security systems. The company is a renowned provider of domestic security service in America and Canada. Their cost efficient security packages are available from an affordable monthly rental of $35.99 only.

Elite Security Services has started offering 20% discount on homeowners insurance to all the homeowners who install home security systems from the company. Elite Security Services is one of the most commonly heard names in the residential protection industry in America and Canada. Within a few months, the company has been able to receive attention of the domestic security customers with their efficient packages and customer friendly service. A number of freebies are also offered regularly by the company to their customers. All the three packages from Elite Security Service are now considered to be top security solutions for households in the United States and Canada.

It is a common practice these days for the home security systems providers to offer different types of discounts. Elite Security Services has many lucrative discounts for their customers, in addition to the recently introduced homeowner's insurance discount. The homeowner's insurance is mandatory in the United States for the customers applying for a mortgage loan. This property insurance policy protects the private homes and provides cover against different personal properties belonging to the homeowners. The owner of Elite Security Services Mr. Paul Shakuri announced the launch of the discount recently in the company headquarters, in Arizona.

Talking about this offer, Mr. Shakuri said, "We are extremely pleased to offer yet another lucrative discount to the homeowners. This 20% discount is valid for any of the three packages from us". Mr. Shakuri is a noted expert in the dome protection industry with years of experience behind him. The company's home security systems are designed by the top professionals from the industry. All three packages from them consist of the latest security devices with user friendly features. Marvin, one of their customers from Nebraska hailed the company for their continuous effort to provide more to the customers. He states, "Elite Security always tries to provide the best to their customers. Dealing with them was a refreshing experience".

About the Company: Elite Security Services is a rapidly growing company in the home security industry. They offer highly efficient and economical home security solutions in America and Canada.

Contact

Paul Shakuri

Phone: 800-599-8452.

Website: <http://www.YourAlarmNow.com>