Re: EVERYMD v. SANTORUM, ROMNEY, GINGRICH et al.
Civil Action No. CV12-01623 DDP (JEMx)

Dear Mr. Romney,

I have enclosed a copy of the complaint for patent infringement filed by EVERYMD against you and others on February 27, 2012 in the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California, as well as a Notice of Lawsuit and Request for Waiver of Service of Summons, two copies of a Waiver of Summons form, and a pre-paid return envelope for returning one copy of the Waiver of Summons form to me. The signed Waiver of Summons form must be returned to me by April 1, 2012 for you to avoid having to pay costs of serving the complaint resulting from your failure to waive service.

EVERYMD realizes that you may have been unaware that use by you of your Facebook page constitutes infringement by you of the '122 patent. Accordingly, as a means of avoiding expensive litigation and to allow you to continue to use your Facebook page, EVERYMD is willing to grant you a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable license to the '122 patent in return for a one-time payment of $500, providing that such $500 payment is received prior to the April 1, 2012 deadline for returning the waiver form. This $500 license fee is a special reduced price available to you only until the April 1, 2012 date.

If you would like to take advantage of this one-time offer, please send a check for $500, payable to "EVERYMD," to me at the above address before April 1, 2012. In return, EVERYMD will promptly dismiss you from the lawsuit and issue you a written patent license. I urge you to take advantage of this generous offer by EVERYMD.

Very truly yours,

Frank Weyer
