

Enhance Your Career Opportunities with Ashworth College

Get the Facts.

Q. What is Distance Education?

Distance education is a flexible way to earn your certificate or degree. As an Ashworth student, you'll receive your coursework online or through the mail, so you can study whenever and wherever your military life takes you.

Currently, about 8 million Americans are enrolled in distance education programs, and the flexible study options attract more students every year. When you study with Ashworth, you'll see how distance education puts you in the driver's seat, by allowing you to set the conditions and pace of your studies while receiving the personal support you need to succeed.

Best of all distance education is affordable. Without all the overhead costs of a traditional college or university, Ashworth's tuition is as much as 60% less. This means your education benefits go even further.

Q. Is Ashworth accredited and what does that mean to me?

Accreditation is a sign of quality. It's proof that the school meets the standards set by the U.S. Department of Education. In addition to being an institutional member of the Servicemembers Opportunity Colleges (SOC) Consortium, Ashworth is nationally accredited by the Distance Education and Training Council (DETC).

Q. Will I need to take entrance exams to be accepted?

Entrance exams are not required for admission to Ashworth. You can start almost immediately.

Q. When can I start classes?

New classes start every month, so you'll never find yourself waiting for a new semester to begin.

Q. Can I earn a college degree from Ashworth?

Yes. Ashworth offers a broad range of Associate, Bachelor's and Master's degree programs, Certificates, and Career and High School Diplomas. With more than 115 career-focused programs, you can match your studies to your career goals. Many Ashworth students graduate in as little as one year.

Q. I have a degree and I want additional training to enhance my career. Do I have to complete another degree?

Ashworth Certificates may be just what you're looking for. They focus only on specialized career skills, offering you the opportunity to obtain comprehensive, real-world preparation for some of today's most popular professions. You could earn your Certificate in just a few weeks.

Q. What is included in my tuition?

Everything you need to complete your course work – there are no costs for textbooks. This means you can complete your degree with little to no out-of-pocket costs.

As a student you also have access to dedicated Military Advisors, career resources, the Ashworth Community, informative blog posts from Ashworth instructors, live online infessions and more. When you've completed your program, you'll be invited to participate in a live graduation ceremony.

Advance in the military and in life...

You dream big. Yet sometimes it's no small feat getting where you want to go. As one of the world's leading online colleges, Ashworth keeps the needs of military service members top of mind.

Whether you need a degree to earn promotion points, move up in rank, or to prepare for the transition to civilian life, Ashworth offers affordable tuition, credit for military and life experience, nationally accredited programs, and a dedicated team of Military Advisors – just some of the ways we can help you earn the quality education you deserve.

Get Credit for What You Know: College Credit by Examination

Take a close look at your accomplishments so far. You've gained valuable experience through the military, education, work, and through everyday living. You deserve credit for what you already know. Simply put, Ashworth College recognizes the importance of life experience and there's a good chance you've already fulfilled some of your requirements.

Accelerate your education through College Credit by Examination. Ashworth college accepts credits through DANTES, ACE, and CLEP programs. We also offer testing to assess your work/life experiences.

Earn Promotion Points and Move Up In Rank Faster:

Re-taking classes you've already completed isn't helping you meet your goals. That's why up to 75% of your undergraduate courses and 25% of graduate courses can be transferred into your Ashworth degree program. Our Military Advisors will have your prior academic coursework and military and professional experience evaluated to ensure you receive as much credit as possible and get you that much closer to earning your degree.

*Subject to change.

Get Your Education on Your Terms.

Military life can sometimes make completing your education challenging. Frequent moves can mean leaving a course in mid-semester or losing credit for courses you've completed that don't transfer between schools. As a leader in distance education, Ashworth's online programs give you the flexibility you need to reach your education goals.

- Deployed? No worries. Once you're settled in your new location we'll help you pick up where you left off.
- New classes starting every month, so you'll never find yourself waiting for a new semester to begin.
- On base, at home or anywhere in the world, study anytime it's convenient for you.

"I was looking to use my education benefits before transitioning out. Ashworth not only offered a program that met my civilian career goals, the tuition was so affordable that my benefits covered both my Associate and Bachelor's degree programs."

Q. Is tuition assistance available?
Yes. Military personnel, veterans and family members of active duty or veteran service members are eligible for tuition assistance through various military programs. Ashworth's Military Advisors are experienced in assisting service members and military spouses get the most from their education benefits.

Military personnel can get tuition assistance through these programs:

- Post 9/11 GI Bill and Montgomery GI Bill – Offers financial aid when you are working towards a college degree.
- DANTE's (Defense Activity for Non-Traditional Education Support) – Provides assistance when studying for a high school diploma, all career diplomas or a college degree.
- GoArmyEd – Ashworth is a Letter of Intent (LOI) school in the GoArmyEd system, allowing Army students to use upfront Tuition Assistance (TA).
- Navy, Air Force, Marine Tuition Assistance – Provides aid toward career certificates and diplomas as well as for college degrees.

Military Spouses can receive up to $4,000 in education benefits through Career Advancement Accounts (MyCAA).

Q. Who teaches my courses?
Ashworth courses are taught by seasoned educators who are also working professionals in the fields they teach. You'll benefit from their professional experience and gain insight into what it's like to work in your chosen career.

Q. Can I transfer credits to Ashworth?
Yes. With Ashworth's generous transfer policy, there are several ways you could receive up to 75% credit towards your degree program. Taking advantage of one or more can accelerate your graduation and save you money. Our Military Advisors can help you with details.

- We accept academic credits from a previous college or university. Our Registrar's office can help you determine how many of your credits will transfer.
- We give credit for previous academic, military, work and life experience.
- Many Ashworth programs can be transferred into a higher degree program.

Q. Can I pause my coursework if I am relocated or deployed?

Don't worry about interrupting your education due to sudden deployments or relocations. Because there are no classes to attend, our programs are more flexible compared to a traditional college. We're ready to work with you one-on-one.

Q. Who do I contact for assistance?

Our Military Advisors are dedicated to helping active duty, veterans and military families from enrollment through graduation. You can always contact an Advisor for questions regarding the application process, military benefits, programs of study, delivery of materials, and more. We can even help arrange tutoring assistance.
