Elmsford, New York – March 29th, 2012 – Digiscribe Expands Document Management Technical Support Team to Support Rapidly Expanding Client Base

In order to meet the needs of their rapidly expanding client base, Digiscribe, a leading document management and document scanning service provider in the New York tri-state area, has expanded their technical support team. Digiscribe has experienced significant growth over the last two years with a substantial increase in document management software sales.

All technical support staff, sales engineers and account executives are trained and vendor-certified in the document scanning and document management software the company resells. Products that are supported include Digitech Systems' ImageSilo cloud-based document management software, PaperVision Enterprise, PaperVision Enterprise Capture Desktop software, Psignen document capture software, Frevvo web-forms and others.

"We are dedicated to providing technical expertise and superior service to our clients. As our client-base continues to grow, our support staff will expand as well to insure all of our clients are receiving the timely and reliable support they have come to expect from Digiscribe. Our vendor-certified sales and technical support team helps establish us as a leader in the document scanning and document management services industry." said Mitch Taube, Digiscribe President.

Digiscribe is a Digitech System's top-ten reseller worldwide and the third year recipient of the prestigious Digitech Systems' Circle of Excellence award, which recognizes the consistent excellent service and high-level technical support Digiscribe provides on Digitech Systems' document management product suite.
