SAN JOSE AIRPORT HOTEL UNDERGOES MORE THAN $1.8 MILLION RENOVATION

Guests will find new rooms and addition of The Bistro to tempt their senses

San Jose, CA. – The Courtyard San Jose Airport Hotel has ascended to a new level of excellence with the completion of its more than $1.8 million renovation.

A soon-to-be-announced grand re-opening celebration will allow guests, local business owners and city officials to tour this San Jose Airport hotel’s remodeled guest rooms, lobby and public spaces. Visual enhancements include new welcome pedestals, furniture, bedding, drapes, wallpaper and carpets, all in line with Marriott’s commitment to upgrade Courtyard properties around the country.

The addition of The Bistro - Eat. Drink. Connect. will tempt guests’ other senses with fresh daily offerings for breakfast and dinner. Menu items include fresh fruits, pizzas, salads, soups and sandwiches made onsite. The restaurant also offers Starbucks® coffee and specialty beverages as well as craft, domestic and imported beers. The brightly lit, café-style area encourages visitors to eat, drink and connect with high-definition TVs placed throughout for viewing news, sports and entertainment.

Visit this hotel near San Jose Airport now and take advantage of the Stay for Breakfast package, which is available now through December 21. The deal features deluxe accommodations in a newly renovated room now featuring 32-inch LCD LG TVs with 11 high-definition channels, free high-speed Internet and a coffee maker. Breakfast for two also is included. Guests should use promotion code S4B.
