

Introducing Vappingo

Vappingo is a new kind of editorial service that combines the professionalism and expertise of traditional editing and proofreading agencies with the accessibility of the Internet—creating an English checking service that can be used by anyone, at any time.

Our online services replace the high cost and bureaucracy of typical editing and proofreading providers with a faster, smarter way to order editorial assistance.

Vappingo is different

Vappingo is different because we provide a true, end-to-end online service. The whole process is fast, confidential, private, secure and—most importantly—affordable.

There is no need to make telephone calls, wait around for a quotation, complete extensive paperwork or endure lengthily lead times – our entire service is instantly accessible online in real time. Best of all, you don't need to be a corporation or a business customer to get attention, Vappingo welcomes every single customer with open arms and treats everyone exactly the same.

Vappingo is fast

It takes just a couple of minutes for customers to place their order for our online English checking service. Once an order has been placed, it is immediately allocated to a professional editor or proofreader who will begin work straight away.

We operate around the clock and orders can be completed and back in the customer's inbox within 24 hours, often much quicker.

Vappingo provides total visibility

Everything at Vappingo is transparent. Once customers have placed an order, they are given instant access to their personal online console where they can contact their editor or proofreader and track the progress of their order through to completion.

Vappingo can be trusted

Any information provided to Vappingo is always secure. We use 128-bit SSL encryption—exactly the same security that banks use—and all data is protected and validated by SiteLock. All payments are processed using a secure external payment processing system and we never see or store our customers' credit card information.

Try the world's easiest English checking system today and you'll quickly see why people all over the world love Vappingo.
