Iris Data Services Hires New Regional Director for Kansas City
Leading Electronic Discovery Company Adds John Stanton to Midwest Sales Force

KANSAS CITY, April 16, 2012 — Iris Data Services, a leading provider of discovery solutions, announced today that it has hired John Stanton as a Regional Director. Stanton will office in the Iris production facility in Kansas City at 1737 Main Street, Kansas City, MO 64108, 816-399-3615. This is a full service litigation support office with complete electronic discovery services, attorney document review, computer forensics, and paper imaging and copying. Iris Data Services is a leading supplier of discovery solutions including electronic discovery, computer forensics, attorney document review, and online hosting.

"Iris has been a leading discovery company in Kansas City and St. Louis for several years," said Stanton. "They have become the definitive choice for discovery services and I look forward to impacting their growth in the Midwest." In his role as Regional Director Stanton will manage the sale of Iris' suite of electronic discovery services throughout the Midwest including Colorado, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska and Oklahoma.

"Stanton comes to Iris with a strong background in providing discovery support services to law firms and corporate legal departments," said Damon Goduto, Iris' Vice President of Sales. "His experience and understanding of complex litigation and how to apply discovery technologies to that process will be a valuable asset to our clients."
