COURTYARD OAKLAND AIRPORT UNDERGOES $1 MILLION MAKEOVER

Renovated lobby, restaurant and fitness center take hotel to new height of excellence

Oakland, CA. – The Courtyard Oakland Airport is feeling like a million bucks inside and out after an extensive remodel project has added cachet to the Marriott reinvigorated facility.

The Oakland Airport hotel’s renovations provide guests with flexible areas to eat, drink, work and socialize. The new welcoming lobby features a state-of-the-art home theater and library along with a giant touch-screen GoBoard where visitors can find directions, check their flight information and get the latest news and weather. The design highlights the hotel’s easy and semi-private check-in and check-out welcome pedestals.

The addition of The Bistro gives guests multiple menu offerings for breakfast and dinner. Food items include fresh fruits, pizzas, salads, soups and sandwiches made onsite. The restaurant also offers Starbucks coffee and specialty beverages as well as craft, domestic and imported beers. The brightly lit, café-style area encourages visitors to eat, drink and connect with high-definition TVs placed throughout for viewing news, sports and entertainment.

Other improvements at the hotel include meeting rooms with new décor and an emphasis on natural lighting and an expanded and renovated fitness center with state-of-the-art cardio equipment complemented by free weights.

One of two Marriott hotels near Oakland Airport, the Courtyard will offer guests a chance to experience its new energy with the New Stay package. Along with deluxe accommodations for $134 to $199 per night, lookie loos will receive a free breakfast or dinner at The Bistro and a nonalcoholic beverage of their choice. To take advantage of this deal, guests should use promotional code ZJ8.

The hotel’s upgrade follows an industry-wide wave of projects and demonstrates Marriott’s commitment to rebranding its properties around the country.
