Deerfield Beach, FL (PRWEB) - April 16, 2012 - After starting operations in South Florida just 8 months ago, Cantor's Driving School announces that it has further expanded its driving school Broward County and Palm Beach Counties. Cantor's Driving School has added two more 2012 driver training cars and hired additional driving instructors to meet the growing demand for professional, one-on-one driving lessons to more South Florida student drivers.

"Our driving school is quickly becoming well known for professionalism and the high quality of our driving lessons," comments owner Frank Cantor. "So Cantor's Driving School has had to expand again to meet this growing demand and serve our student drivers."

According to Frank Cantor, three things have helped push Cantor's Driving School to the top of the list when parents, teens and adult student drivers are choosing their provider for driving instruction in South Florida. First, Cantor's Driving School hires instructors that are off-duty or retired law enforcement officers who bring a wealth of knowledge and experience to impart to their students. Second, Cantor's Driving School offers money-saving packages of driver training lessons. These driving lessons packages are bundles of 3, 4, 5 or 6 two-hour lessons, and the day-of-test service can be added to any of these packages. All driver training package include a discounted rate and online payment is available. Of course, individual lessons are also offered. Third, Cantor's Driving School is one of the few South Florida driving schools offering night driving lessons along with normal daytime lessons. Cantor's regular hours extend to 8 PM on Monday through Thursday, so driving lessons can be scheduled in the evening, helping student drivers gain valuable night driving experience and fulfill the Florida Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles (DHSMV) requirement of 10 hours of night driving as part of the minimum 50 hours of total hours of driving experience required to take the Florida driving test.
