SOULFUL SINGER TO HEADLINE SERIES AT LOS ANGELES AIRPORT HOTEL

Michael LeClerc to perform as part of Renaissance Hotel's RLife Live Series

Los Angeles, CA. – The Renaissance Los Angeles Airport Hotel encourages music lovers to discover a new sound as the next acoustic performer in its RLife Live Series takes the stage Thursday, April 26.

Canada's Michael LeClerc will land at one of the premier Los Angeles luxury hotels to meet and greet fans and play music from his self-released album, "Radio," which was recorded in Santa Monica, CA. The singer/songwriter has received airplay in Southern California, Texas and Canada and plans on spending most of 2012 gaining exposure through concerts at other Renaissance properties and California venues.

Guests will be treated to LeClerc's soulful sounds from 8 to 10 p.m. as well as seasonal bar bites, blue-ribbon menu items and hand-crafted cocktails served by the Los Angeles airport hotel's courteous and prompt staff.

Renaissance Hotels launched the RLife Live series in 2010 to engage guests and local residents with entertainment that takes them beyond the quick photo shoots or autograph sessions common in the City of Angels. Its onsite acoustic performances and listening parties have been a platform for musical talent such as Bruno Mars, N.E.R.D, Andrew Allen, Hugo, Neon Trees and more.

For information about LeClerc's performance, call 310-337-2800. To hear clips of LeClerc's music, visit www.michaelleclercmusic.com.
