Amara launches the innovative & exciting 2012 collection from Missoni Home

MISSONI HOME

The new and fascinating story of this latest collection from Missoni Home is an interweave of nature and fantasy, passion and geometry. The colour tones are vibrantly intense and rich in high notes with an extensive variant of fabrics to create texture and dimension throughout the collection. With a fusion of inspirations and techniques, the eclectic mix and use of the pictorial colour palette makes this another successful collection from this inspirational design house.

The interplay of colours and fragmented stripes mixed with an inter-stitch knit print create diversity and interest in the home.

The new collection encompasses desirable products for the home, sumptuous bathrobes in new designs with matching towelling and bathmats.

There is a stunning range of soft furnishings that can be used as stand alone pieces or with advice from specialists at Amara the complete Missoni look can easily be achieved using rugs, pouf's, cushions & throws.
