WESTLAKE HOTEL HOSTS ORIGINAL WORKS BY CELEBRATED LOCAL ARTIST

The Dallas/Fort Worth Marriott Solana Hotel welcomes artist Roger Bernard and his unique collection, entitled "Petals"

Dallas, TX – A hip, upscale Westlake hotel near Dallas is making the final preparations on unveiling a highly anticipated exhibit of original paintings by a famed local artist. The Dallas/Fort Worth Marriott Solana Hotel is proud to welcome a beautiful series of works by artist Roger Bernard as part of a special art exhibition.

Entitled "Petals" this series of oils on canvas present striking depictions of native exotic flowers. Inspiration was drawn from flora and fauna grown by the artist grew in his own backyard. Bernard is a recognized master of fidelity to detail within his subject matter, and he expressively uses black backgrounds to heighten the vivid petals to create an effect of floating and timelessness. The series of art will be displayed at the Westlake hotel from April 15, 2012 until June 30, 2012.

Roger Bernard is a talented, internationally renowned artist born in Managua, Nicaragua. Recognized at a young age for his artistic talent, he was awarded a full scholarship to Jesuit University in Guatemala. He continued his artistic education at the Art Center School of Design in Pasadena, CA. His favorite medium to use is oils, which he believes "captures with great execution the true 'essence' in the subjects" he paints.

After many years of highly-recognized work with the Boy Scouts of America in their efforts to promote diversity in scouting, Mr. Bernard left the organization to return to his art. "Petals" marks his full-time return back to the world of fine art, and The Dallas/Fort Worth Marriott Solana Hotel is proud to host the exhibition.

The artwork will be displayed in the Marriott's lobby. Guests staying at the hotel are encouraged to enjoy the special exhibit, which will be open for public viewing.
