BURR RIDGE HOTEL TO OFFER MOTHER'S DAY BRUNCH FIT FOR A QUEEN

Chicago Marriott Southwest will give all moms a special gift along with their scrumptious meals

Burr Ridge, IL. – At a very early age, the chef at the Chicago Marriott Southwest at Burr Ridge says he fondly remembers gathering in his family's kitchen to whip up a tasty homemade meal that made his mom proud.

Chef Jonathan Welch, now a little older and much more seasoned, wants to share his more than 15 years of expertise for a Chicago Mother's Day brunch that'll make everyone's special lady just as appreciative. Ciazza restaurant at his Burr Ridge hotel will offer a special May 13 buffet that features honey baked ham, jumbo shrimp, smoked salmon, chicken picatta, cinnamon rolled French toast, eggs Benedict, breakfast pastries and more. The $29.95 per person price includes bottomless mimosas and non-alcoholic beverages including freshly squeezed orange juice, just-brewed coffee and tea or ice cold white, skim and chocolate milk. Children ages 4-12 can enjoy this delicious spread for just $13.95. Mothers also will receive a free gift from the Chicago-area hotel.

Mom can sit back and take delight in Ciazza's engaging environment with fine linens while helping herself to Welch's culinary creations and sampling fresh fruits, salads, breads and desserts fit for a queen.

Families can make their Chicago Mother's Day even more memorable by taking advantage of May's average temperature of 69 degrees and sitting outside on the Burr Ridge, IL., hotel's comfortable yet classy patio. Mom can cozy up to the outdoor fire pit and take in the scenery of pretty hanging plants while enjoying cushioned chairs and fine table clothes – just as she would in her own home but without the hassle of cooking or cleaning up afterward.
