COURTYARD HOTEL IN HUNTSVILLE, AL COMPLETES $1.5 MILLION RENOVATION

The Courtyard Huntsville Hotel offers guests a brand new hotel experience thanks to a $1.5 million to upgrade its dining concept, fitness center, meeting space and outdoor patio area.

Huntsville, AL – Guests staying at the Courtyard Hotel in Huntsville, AL will learn firsthand why change is good.

The Courtyard Huntsville Hotel has recently completed a series of extensive improvements to its dining area, lobby space, fitness center, meeting rooms and outdoor patio. The overall investment totaled $1.5 million.

Guests at this hotel in Huntsville will be treated to entirely new experience the moment they step through the door. The hotel has replaced its front desk with stylish welcome pedestals that allow for greater guest interaction and speedier check-ins. A new dining concept, The Bistro – Eat. Drink. Connect, also serves delicious, hot meals, refreshing snacks and healthy choices.

Unique amongst hotels in Huntsville is the GoBoard®--a state-of-the-art touch screen television. The large display allows guests to explore the local area, find attractions, offer directions, and receive weather reports, business headlines and sports scores. Coupled with a new business library and guests will have plenty of tech-friendly goodies to get their hands on.

New carpet has been installed in the two meeting rooms. Offering up to 1,250 square feet, the event and meeting rooms are the perfect place for business travelers to brainstorm new ideas or for groups to enjoy intimate social affairs.

Those with an active lifestyle will appreciate the new fitness equipment. After a workout, guests can relax outdoors in the renovated patio area. The space now features comfortable new furniture, perfect for lounging or catching up on the latest headlines.
