AppSolutely Inc. Named as Finalist in Best Cloud Product Category for TechAmerica High-Tech Innovation Awards

The vablet® iPad file management app earns recognition as a complete solution for a rapidly growing market of mobile users in corporate environments.

Irvine, Calif., May 3, 2012 – AppSolutely, Inc., developers of vablet™, a secure file management container for iPhone, iPad and Android, has been named a finalist in the Best Cloud Product category for the TechAmerica Orange County High-Tech Innovation Awards. Now in its 19th year, this premier business event celebrates excellence and achievement in the region's technology industry, and honors local companies, individuals and products that drive innovation in Orange County. This year's winners will be announced at a dinner, June 14, 2012, at the Hilton in Costa Mesa, Calif.

"The vision for our product was inspired by our own desire to have secure, instant access to business files on mobile devices," explains Paul Pacun, founder of vablet. "So it's an honor to have our tablet solution recognized by TechAmerica, in addition to the thousands of vablet users worldwide."

"We received nearly 100 nominations including start-up innovators, high-growth companies and established industry players from across Orange County," said Bob Brunson, the director of TechAmerica in Orange County. "We congratulate AppSolutely, Inc. for rising to the finalist rank. This region is home to groundbreaking innovations, including AppSolutely, Inc. that continue to influence technology development throughout the rest of the world, and we're excited to help highlight them."
