

Management Biographies

Herb Hribar
Chief Executive Officer
CENX, Inc.
Herb.hribar@cenx.com
1-703-615-0848
www.cenx.com

Herb Hribar is a seasoned operating executive with hands-on experience in wireless, fixed line and broadband cable TV organizations worldwide. His operating experience has been characterized by creating substantial growth and increasing enterprise value in a number of leadership positions, including as President of Ameritech Wireless ($2b revenue, then one of fastest growing wireless carriers in the U.S.), Managing Director of Ameritech Europe ($2.5b investment), GM of Sprint International, President and COO Verio (acquired by NTT for $5.5b), COO of Eircom (Ireland's largest telecommunications company: IPO for $4b), COO of Cablecom (largest Swiss cable operator: acquired by Liberty Global for $3.6b), and COO of Kabel Deutschland (largest German cable operator: IPO for $6.5b). Herb holds an MS in Civil Engineering from University of Illinois, MS in Computer Science at John Hopkins University and an MBA from George Washington University. Herb is a graduate of the US Naval Academy with a BS in Ocean Engineering and served for 9 years as an officer in the United States Navy.