We've helped tens of thousands of singles make successful millionaire matches, here's proof:

"From the moment we met there was fantastic chemistry and compatibility. We both feel that we are the one that we had been searching for all our lives. Other competitive sites do not afford sufficient information to truly get a feel for the other person you are about to reach out to. The search possibilities and dating suggestions are tremendous in aiding one in finding the perfect match and ensuring safety first. We are both so pleased with our results."

— GatorGuy2011 and 1in1million, Gainesville, United States

Here's another success story:

"I'd be happy to share. In fact, I know several friends have probably joined MM because of our success. In a nutshell, L. was the 4th man I met in person from MM. All 4 men were gentlemen and interesting. L. and I both are financially in great shape. He lives in San Diego/Jackson Hole and I split my time between Phoenix and Telluride. In spite of the distance, we've managed to be together about 50% of the time. We've made a commitment to be with only one another. He is probably the brightest, funniest man I've ever met and it would never have happened without the internet."
