

WITHOUT A TRACE INVESTIGATIONS, LLC

PH: 516-318-2044

WE'RE IN & WE'RE OUT, WITHOUT LEAVING A TRACE!

“CYBERBULLYING AND SEXTING:

CURRENT LAWS AND ISSUES WITHIN THE SCHOOLS AND COMMUNITIES”

Presented by: Melissa Straub

Program Director of the Cyber Law Enforcement Officer

Introduction

Melissa Straub

www.Wiredsafety.org

www.Withoutatraceinvestigations.com

Cyber bullying 101: The basics

What is it and why is it so notable

Tragedies tied to cyber bullying continue to make national headlines

Why is it so notable?

Has the essence of the bullying changed?

What are the technologies used

How is it legally defined federally/NJ

Court rulings and punishing's

Sexting

Repeat above

How to tackle the legal twists and turns of cyber bullying in schools

What is cyber bullying exactly and has it changed?

What are the current laws

Example of a school policy

What is happening in NJ schools today

NJ created an anti-cyber bullying law that went into effect on

Issues with the current law are lack of clear training assurance and funding for the enforcement of policies

What is the perception on the part of the mandated reporters?

Training issues and concerns

Community issues and Concerns:

What are the concerns in the community?

The contrast in responsibility is between the schools, law enforcement and parents?

What can parents do?

What can schools and other community organizations do to combat?

What are the police, social services investigators, and juvenile officers responsibilities ?

Where do we go from here?

Open Questions and concerns:

Panel Discussion: Participants will include:

Lawyers, School Counselor, Administrator, Law Enforcement, juvenile justice officer and social services.

Open discussion on current polices, issues, training and concerns.