MIX IT UP AT PORTLAND'S HOTEL deLUXE WITH A HANDS-ON CRAFT COCKTAIL PACKAGE

May 17, 2012 – PORTLAND, Ore. – The craft cocktail revolution is underway and nowhere in the nation is that more apparent than in Portland. In this city where residents are famed for their obsession with artisanal food and drink, bartenders are celebrated and cocktails are a serious pastime. Now, glamorous Hotel deLuxe in downtown Portland is offering guests the opportunity to spend the night, drink like a local and learn the city's cocktail secrets from the bartenders at the iconic Driftwood Room with the Shaken, Not Stirred package.

At the heart of the package is an immersive educational experience that brings to life the art, history, science and passion of craft cocktails. Led by the expert bartenders at the hotel's historic Driftwood Room, a bastion of Portland cocktail know-how and lore since 1954, the one hour class begins with one of the bar's signature champagne cocktails, progresses on to a hands-on lesson in mixing a pre-Prohibition era inspired cocktail and features two paired appetizers. In addition, guests who book Hotel deLuxe's Shaken Not Stirred package will enjoy luxurious overnight accommodations and a $25 food and beverage credit for room service, the Driftwood Room or Gracie's restaurant.

Shaken, Not Stirred is available on Friday and Saturday nights only. Classes are offered at noon on Friday and Saturday. Rates start at $249 per night, plus tax. To book, call 866-986-8085 or visit www.hoteldeluxe.com/cocktailclass.
