

HTC Canada Announces the Availability of Free HTC One V Handset for Three Year Contract with Bell Canada, according to recently released market research report.

Internet Marketing Services has just published a market research report informing that the HTC Canada customers would now be able to have access to their latest handset HTC One V. This handset is now available free of charge for the customers signing up for a three year contract with Bell Canada, according to the report.

A recent report from Internet Marketing Services has revealed that HTC Canada has just introduced their new HTC One V handset in Canada. The handset with advanced features is now available absolutely free for consumers entering a three years' contract with Bell Canada. The report also informs that the customers not willing to enter a contract may purchase the handset for $299.50. Internet Marketing Services is an Ontario based market survey company that regularly reviews different popular products to ensure consumer awareness. Their recent report also indicates that the handset HTC One V handset is expected to arrive soon in the U.S market, too.

The introduction of this new phone by HTC Canada is great news for Smartphone users looking for a budget centric handset from the recently introduced One line from HTC. Internet Marketing Services' report suggests that the most exciting thing about this new handset is its 5 MP camera. Powered by HTC's recently introduced Image Sense Technology, the camera allows ultra fast capturing of pictures Beats Audio is another noteworthy feature of One V that provides out of the world audio experience. Other important features are 512 MB RAM, 1GHz single core Qualcomm processor, and 3.7 inch screen with WVGA resolution.

The report from Internet Marketing Services opines that HTC Canada is in the process of introducing all the handsets of their recently introduced One Series in Canada. Other handsets in this line of Smartphones like One X and One S have already been introduced in the Canadian market. The report also informs that HTC is all set to introduce new updates for their handsets in the Canadian market to enhance the user experience. The Smartphone users in Canada are certainly in for a treat!

About Internet Marketing Services: Internet Marketing Services is a private market research company that conducts market research on various topics. The company is based out of Ontario.

Contact: Paul Bonner

<http://www.htccanada.ca/>