Jonathan Parker to Join Holland & Hart's Legislative and Regulatory Affairs Group

BOISE, Idaho – May 31, 2012 – Holland & Hart LLP is pleased to announce the addition of Jonathan Parker to the firm's Legislative and Regulatory Affairs Group as the Director of Governmental Affairs and Public Relations in the firm's Boise office.

As a non-lawyer lobbyist, Parker will offer a wide range of government affairs and public relations services at the federal, state, and local levels, and public relations consultation.

"Jonathan has a proven track record in government affairs work at all levels of government and working with clients from diverse industries with varying policy goals," said Boise administrative partner Murray Feldman. "As the first Director of Governmental Affairs in our Boise office, we look forward to Jonathan expanding our firm's presence in this area with the valuable perspectives and expertise he brings."

Parker is the outgoing Executive Director of the Idaho Republican Party, a position he has held since 2009. He will make the transition to Holland & Hart after the Party's state convention from June 21-23.

About Holland & Hart

Holland & Hart's Boise office has been part of the Idaho legal community for over 70 years. Our local experience combined with the resources of our regional office network enable us to handle a wide range of legal matters.

Our Boise office has grown to more than 40 attorneys working in a variety of legal disciplines, several of whom are nationally recognized as leaders in their fields by organizations such as The Best Lawyers in America, Super Lawyers, the Legal 500, and Chambers USA.

Supported by a network of more than 400 attorneys in 15 offices across the Mountain West and Washington, D.C., we blend our national reach with the approachability and responsiveness you expect from local counsel.
