

Elite Security Services Bolsters Phoenix Home Security with Advanced Domestic Protection Plans.

The domestic security in Phoenix has seen a marked improvement since last one year, thanks to the efficient Phoenix home security service from Elite Security Services. The advanced surveillance plans from the company has provided the much needed protection to the life and property of homeowners in this bustling city.

Phoenix home security company Elite Security Services is now the most preferred choice for homeowners in this region. The comprehensive protection packages from the company have made life difficult for the miscreants in this region since they started serving this city about a year ago. It may be recalled that the company was founded last year by well known security consultant Mr. Paul Shakuri. The affordable price of their security plans has been the prime reason behind their ever increasing popularity in Phoenix and its adjoining areas. All three protection plans from them have excellent functional features in spite of their competitive price range.

Phoenix home security has been a cause of concern in the recent years because of the steady increase in the rate of organized crime. Many companies have been offering security service in this part of the country for years. However, unlike these companies, Elite Security Services has been extremely proactive towards developing cost efficient security plans. The Basic Package from the company is available for a monthly rental equivalent to $1/day. The other two packages offer a plethora of advanced features for slightly higher rentals. They have recently introduced next day installation service without any additional expense for their customers in Phoenix.

Elite Security Services has specially designed security packages for households without a landline telephone connection. This enables the homeowners to avail undisturbed domestic security making use of advanced cellular backup technology. Talking about the service offered by the company, the owner Mr. Shakuri recently said, "We created this organization with a much greater vision of playing our part in creating a crime free society. We would remain committed to offering low priced security plans so that even the common homeowners can afford them". Looking at the progress of the company, it can certainly be said that Phoenix home security is in safe hands.

About the Company: Elite Security Services is a rapidly growing company in the home security industry. They offer highly efficient and economical home security solutions in America and Canada.
