

Please direct inquiries to:
John Lercari, 800-204-5478
john@thememoriesplace.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: June 12, 2012

The Memories Place Releases Line of Personalized Glassware
Personalized glassware makes a special gift and will last for years

CONWAY, SC – The Memories Place, a company specializing in top-quality photo blankets, canvas prints and other customized gifts, has launched a new line of customized glassware.

The glassware collection features coffee mugs, beer mugs, steins and frosted sports mugs. Each piece of personalized glassware can be fully customized with names and dates etched or sublimated directly onto the glassware using precision laser equipment.

“Our heavy, quality glassware products look great, and those who own them will enjoy using them for years,” said John Lercari, owner of The Memories Place. “These personalized glassware gifts are perfect for commemorating bachelor parties, golf outings, housewarming gifts, anniversaries or any other special occasions.”

Customers can design glassware that will stand out as unique and thoughtful gifts that recipients will appreciate and want to show off. In addition to 15-ounce, heavy-duty ceramic coffee mugs, shoppers at The Memories Place can personalize a thermos, jar set or tavern mug set with details that best suit the receiver’s hobbies or interests, such as racing, golf, poker, sports or more.

Personalized steins with special designs are also available, just in time for Father’s Day on June 17. Buyers can choose from the Father’s Day headline stein and the “Super Dad” stein, along with many others. The 16-ounce frosted sports mugs, which come in sets of four, also make one-of-a-kind group gifts and come in a range of creative and customizable designs.

“If you’re looking for a gift that you can really tailor to a specific person, the gift of personalized glassware from The Memories Place is a perfect option,” said Lercari. “Combined with the superior craftsmanship consistent with all our products and our dedication to excellent customer service, you just cannot go wrong with a special gift from The Memories Place.”

Personalized glassware starts at $20.99, with free shipping available on orders exceeding $75. The Memories Place accepts all major credit cards and PayPal, and is a ShopWiki-approved store.

To browse the company’s selection of personalized glassware, please visit <http://www.thememoriesplace.com>.

###