

Summer is Heating Up for The Levy Group: Michael Norwood performs with Atlanta's Finest Musicians

Atlanta, GA, July 5, 2012 ---The summer started heating up for The Levy Group, LLC as their client, bassist Michael Norwood, performed with Atlanta's finest musicians. On June 28th, Michael shared the stage with the new Indie POP Princess Micah Kiyo for the Volt Summer Music Series at the Center Stage Theater located in Midtown Atlanta. Norwood also performed on the 29th and 30th of this month with Jazz saxophonist Gary Harris at Close Up 2, an upscale Jazz club located at the Clarion Hotel just outside of Atlanta, GA. Both events attracted the Atlanta-based musician's fans, filling the venues at capacity.

It is not the first time Michael has performed with well-known talent; He has shared his versatile playing skills with Grammy Award and American Music Award artists such as Crystal Nicole, Herbie Hancock, Norman Brown, The Rippingtons, Charlie 'Uncle Charlie' Wilson, Marcus Miller, Karen Clark-Sheard, and Algebra Blessett. His prowess extends beyond being an instrumentalist. Norwood's new single, "People Make the World Go Round," highlights his talents as a producer and songwriter. "This song is more than a catchy groove with a melodic hook. It speaks of hard-working people taking a stand for what they believe in and want out of life," says Michael. The single is scheduled for a fall release. Norwood can often be caught playing with Ryan Kilgore, a saxophonist for Stevie Wonder, at local venues.

The Levy Group, LLC an artist management company specializing in developing diversified management strategies for a wide range of clients. Founded in 2009 by Prince Levy and his wife Shondraya Grant-Levy, the Prince George's County, Maryland-based company represents clients nationwide. Levy said, "Our mission is to assist in the development and branding of our clients and we want to do so with the highest standards and integrity." The Levy Group's diversity in their client base extends from Grammy nominated musicians to independent film producers, motivational speakers, and fashion designers. This year is marked as the year for expansion and growth for the Levy's as they hire an Orange County, California-based strategic marketing and public relations consulting company to assist in the development of their brand.
