

Top Rated Chandler Home Security Company Introduces Discount on Homeowner's Insurance Certificate for All their Customers.

Elite Security Services, the most preferred Chandler home security service provider, has recently started offering 20% discounted to their customers for their homeowner's insurance certificate. The company is presently considered to be one of the fastest growing security companies in the United States, and their service is available all over Canada and America.

Chandler home security customers purchasing their domestic surveillance plan from Elite Security Services are now entitled to receive fabulous discount on their homeowner's insurance. The company is one of the most talked about security companies throughout the United States for their surveillance plans that are priced economically to suit the budget of a common man. Their efficient home protection plans provide all the latest innovations in the industry in spite of their competitive price range. Elite Security Services also offers excellent added benefits to enhance customer delight. The discount offer on homeowner's insurance is valid for all security plans from the company.

Chandler home security industry is a rapidly expanding industry with several big players. Most of these companies come up with special promotions for their customers from time to time. However, a 20% discount on homeowner's insurance is certainly more lucrative than most of those offers. Homeowner's insurance is a mandatory requirement throughout the United States for anyone applying for a mortgage loan. These policies provide protection to private homes by offering insurance cover against loss of any personal property belonging to the policy holder. The introduction of this discount is expected to help Elite Security Services to reach out to more homeowners in Chandler and its surrounding areas.

While announcing this discount in Chandler, the owner of Elite Security Services, Mr. Paul Shakuri said, "Homeowner's insurance is required for all homeowners and 20% discount on this policy can mean substantial savings for most of us. We are extremely happy to offer this benefit to all of you in Chandler". Company sources have revealed that many similar special offers would be announced very soon by the company.

Chandler home security customers have welcomed the introduction of this discount scheme by Elite Security Services.

About the Company: Elite Security Services is a rapidly growing company in the home security industry. They offer highly efficient and economical home security solutions in America and Canada.

Contact

Paul Shakuri

Phone: 800-880-9569

Website: <http://www.YourAlarmNow.com>