PSCPets.com Rescue Outreach Program Donates to Military Working Dogs PSCPets.com and Customers Donate Joint Health to Dogs on the Front Lines.

Menomonie, Wis., July 9th, 2012 – PSCPets.com, a leading online supplier of health and wellness products for pets, has teamed up to Support Military Working Dogs. Throughout the month of July 2012, PSCPets.com will be sponsoring a Rescue Outreach Program and will be working with customers to donate PSCPets Joint Support for working military dogs in need to help celebrate Independence Day.

Starline Nunley, initially started trying to help her son cope with high temperature while he was an Apache helicopter fighter pilot stationed in Iraq in 2008. What she discovered was that the military provided for the soldiers well, but their military dogs were having trouble doing their jobs in the extreme heat, which put everyone in danger. After learning how the heat affected the Military Working Dogs Starline set out to see how she could help them and thus, the program to Support Working Military Dogs began. In addition to dealing with heat, Military Working Dogs also endure a lot of joint stress due to their physically demanding roles on the front lines.

During the month of July for every $5 that a customer donates to the Rescue Outreach Program, PSCPets.com will donate a bottle of PSCPets Joint Support, worth $26.99. PSCPets Joint Support contains a special blend of ingredients that helps support healthy bones, and joints. Containing glucosamine, chondroitin sulfate, manganese, and vitamin E this PSCPets Joint Support is ideal for supporting healthy and flexible joints in working dogs.

Complete details about this Rescue Outreach Program can be found online.
