Fort Worth luxury hotel named among top meeting facilities in the U.S.

The Worthington Renaissance Fort Worth Hotel features 55,000 square feet of flexible, comfortable space for conferences, conventions

Fort Worth, TX – Officials at The Worthington Renaissance Fort Worth Hotel have countless reasons to let out a Texas-sized “yeeeeee haaaaaaw” in Sundance Square thanks to the largest event management software company in the country.

The Fort Worth luxury hotel has just been ranked No. 71 on Cvent’s list of top 100 meeting hotels in the United States. With 18 meeting rooms and 55,000 square feet of flexible space, the Fort Worth hotel known as the star of Texas outshined 80,000 facilities and was hailed by 150,000 event and marketing professionals nationwide.

The coveted honor acknowledges superlative ability of the downtown Fort Worth Stockyards hotel to host everything from large-scale conventions for 1,400 people in the Rio Grande Room to intimate breakout groups or executive sessions of up to 18 attendees in the Treaty Oak Boardroom. Meeting spaces feature custom-designed flooring, contemporary lighting, stylish glassware and state-of-the-art audio and visual equipment. Other amenities include the Grand Ballroom’s formal yet cozy foyer with bar and the Boardroom’s executive leather swivel chairs and Italian marble conference table. High-speed Internet, along with copy, fax and messenger services, will ensure the most complex of presentations come off without a hitch.

Business professionals can grab breakfast, lunch or dinner at the Fort Worth convention center hotel’s

Vidalias restaurant serving authentic southern cuisine with an emphasis on local, fresh ingredients. The hotel also offers BarWired Internet Café, serving Starbucks coffee, and its lobby bar, where bartenders can concoct any cocktail imaginable, including the house specialty: a Yellow Rose Martini.

After spending long hours in successful strategic planning sessions, convention-goers can retire to one of 474 rooms or 30 suites on 12 floors with spectacular views of downtown Fort Worth. Guest rooms designed in a tasteful Western style feature flat-screen TVs; comfortable bedding with custom duvets, down comforters and plenty of fluffy pillows; high-speed Internet; spacious desks and in-room coffee and tea service.
