IMAGINE.INSPIRE.INNOVATE

The workplace is changing rapidly.

Attend ELCE and you’ll gain insights from leaders who leverage workplace technologies, people and processes to build smarter organizations. At ELCE, you will IMAGINE. INSPIRE. INNOVATE.

ELCE is designed to bring thought leaders, executives and technologists together to learn, network and share — To Turn Ideas into Innovations. The Opening Keynote titled, “Creating Time to Innovate,” features David Allen, worldwide authority on productivity and author of “Getting Things Done.” On day 2, Learning Innovators Keynote features American Heart Association, Cisco and Southern New Hampshire University (named “Most Innovative Company” by Fast Company.) Network with thought leaders from Hertz, British Petroleum, Neiman Marcus, Medtronic, Scripps Health, Time Warner, Bank of the West, Cricket Communications, Franklin Covey, The Ken Blanchard Companies, Robert Half International, Bechtel, Cargill, Hult International Business School, Audatex, Exec | Com, Ferrari Studios and leading learning executives.

This year’s theme: IMAGINE.INSPIRE.INNOVATE. is the subject of more than 54 sessions across four tracks — all designed to focus on tangible results you need to achieve for your organization. Elearning! Media Group’s editors and industry conference advisory board have developed the most relevant content program available — with all sessions designed to provide tangible takeaways that will help you IMAGINE. INSPIRE. INNOVATE.

ELCE is the only event that brings executive leaders together with industry technologists to create the high performing organization. People like you from large and small organizations, public and private sectors, association or non profits, come together to learn, network and share what works and what’s next in this learning and workplace technology showcase at ELCE 2012.

Register for ELCE 2012, spend a few days in Southern California and discover why 2500 executives attended ELCE 2011 to boost enterprise performance. It’s time to IMAGINE. INSPIRE. INNOVATE.

See you in Irvine!

IMAGINE. INSPIRE. INNOVATE.
E-learning Fundamentals: The Steps to Success

Are you tasked with creating e-learning in your organization and have never done it?

Have you tried to create e-learning but found it to be a lot more complicated than you thought?

Have you wondered why there is so much badly designed and developed e-learning out there?

Whether you are new to e-learning or the appointed Guru, you may be surprised by how many decisions are to be made around migrating to e-learning. In fact, take the right steps right from the start and deliver stellar e-learning that actually works. You can be the hero who managed to weave your way through the still live mines to get to the end result on time and under budget. You can have learners praise your name for delivering engaging, challenging experiences, free from the dreaded “Hit Next-Next-Next” Syndrome.

In this workshop, we will focus on the practical steps to establishing, designing and developing e-learning. In the process, you will learn to:

1. Ask the three crucial questions at the very start
2. Form a checklist of important tasks that must be accomplished
3. Prototype and design an e-learning lesson - your own or one that will be provided
4. Decide which tools will help you best in developing your lesson
5. Develop your working lesson using one or more e-learning tools.

This is not a lecture class. This is hands-on and you will be guided along the way. You can choose whether you want to work with a group of others or on your own, with expert assistance the whole time. If you have more than one person in your organization that wishes to participate, you can form your own group and focus on your specific objectives. LAPTOP REQUIRED.

After two days you will walk away ready to go back to your organization and hit the ground running!

E-learning Fundamentals: The Steps to Success

Host: Joe Ganci, CEO, Dazzle Technologies

Joe Ganci is an e-learning expert with a long track record. Since 1983, Joe’s design approaches and his expert use of development tools, such as Captivate, Presenter and Acrobat, ZebraZapps, Roleplay, Storyline and others, have caused many to rethink how they are designing and developing their e-learning and to implement new and better methods.

Joe holds a degree in Computer Science and is a published author, having written several books, research papers and many articles. He is on a mission to improve the quality of e-learning with practical approaches that work.

This workshop qualifies for 20 Learning! Professional Certificate Credits from the Elearning! Institute.

Creating a Social Learning Hive

Almost 40% of enterprises are leveraging social networks for learning and collaboration. (Even more for recruiting and branding.) Yet, many enterprises are using public networks like Facebook and LinkedIn with open sharing and security. But, this is not the proper strategy for most enterprises.

In this half day workshop, Vicki Tambellini, CEO of Tambellini Group, will share the strategy, decision points and implementation of an engaging social learning environment. Vicki has successfully built edu1world, the largest social hive for educators and technologists. She shares her secrets and strategies in this workshop including:

- Introduction to Social Learning
- Key features of a great social learning network
- The business case for a social learning network
- Do’s and Don’ts
- Tour of a Social Learning Ecosystem
- User Case studies
- Review of Social Learning Network Checklist
- Summary and Next Steps.

This workshop qualifies for 10 Learning! Professional Certificate Credits from the Elearning! Institute.

Host: Vicki Tambellini, President and CEO, The Tambellini Group

Ms. Tambellini is known for her work building edu1world, an Enterprise Hive social community serving more than 30,000 higher education professionals. The Tambellini Group is also the world’s leading research and advisory firm for education and technology executives. The firm provides trusted market insights for executives and has been informing top universities, public sector organizations, vendors and investors on key market trends. Vicki is an award-winning leader, author, blogger, consultant and social business software entrepreneur.

“John Hunter was amazing! Great end to the conference.”

He has successfully launched Cricket Communication’s Leadership Development Program, Retail Curriculum and Mobile Learning Platform, and has been named a 2012 Enterprise Learning! Top 100. John holds a Ph.d in Visual Arts and a Master’s degree in Education from Indiana University, Bloomington.
Creating Time to Innovate
David Allen, Founder & Chairman,
The David Allen Company

Every day, businesses and learning organizations face new challenges and opportunities: talent management, new product deployments, upgrading internal infrastructure, competitive challenges, time to market pressures, and emerging technologies, to name a few. Any of these can be overwhelming at times, and without an effective method to address these symptoms, it can become costly in resources and human capital, as well as drain an organization’s innovative juices. In this session David will provide you with a roadmap that will help you increase performance, capacity, and aligned execution, thus freeing up time and resources for innovation and creativity.

David Allen is the Chairman and Founder of the David Allen Company, an international training and consulting firm specializing in the fields of personal and organizational productivity. He has been called “One of the world’s most influential thinkers in the field of productivity,” designated as “One of America’s top 100 thought leaders,” and named one of the “Top 100 people to follow on Twitter.” He is the author of 3 books. His international bestseller “Getting Things Done” has been a perennial bestseller and it is now published in over 28 languages. He is one of the few non-celebrities on Twitter with over a million followers captivated by his wit and inspiration.

Join David for a book signing in the Expo Hall immediately after keynote.

Meet Bina48: Your Humanoid Personal Tutor
Bina48, Humanoid and Bruce Duncan, M.Ed.,
Managing Director, Terasem Foundation

Use Siri, iPhone’s virtual assistant? Now, meet Bina48.

Bina48 is one of the world’s most advanced social robots. Bina48 was commissioned by Dr. Martine Rothblatt and created by Hanson Robotics Inc. using video interview transcripts, laser scanning life mask technology, face recognition, artificial intelligence and voice recognition technology.

Three year old Bina48 is the most advanced social robot in existence, and learning executives will be evaluating her abilities as a teacher at ELCE. Could this humanoid be the teacher of the future?

Bina48 will be joined by Bruce Duncan, the Managing Director of the Terasem Movement Foundation Inc. and Principal Investigator with the LifeNaut Project (www.lifenaut.com). The LifeNaut project is a long-term experiment in personal online information storage and retrieval and is the brainchild of Dr. Martine Rothblatt, Inventor of SIRIUS Satellite Radio, Author, and Biotech CEO.

When we talked with Bruce, we asked if he and his team had considered the possibility of a ‘teaching’ attribute for 3-year old Bina48. The answer was a resounding ‘yes,’ and we will be the first to see that attribute in a live session at ELCE. Join Bruce Duncan, M.Ed. and Bina48 as we explore and imagine how the “personal tutor” of future might evolve.

Meet and greet follows in the Ballroom.

10:00 AM – 10:45 AM

Everyone is a Leader
Speaker: Alice Cutter, Vice President, Learning, Time Warner Cable
At Time Warner Cable, long-term success begins with an employee’s understanding and embracing the company’s leadership opportunities. In this session, Alice will share how Time Warner Cable developed a business strategy based on the theme “everyone is a leader.” She will discuss the process used to build leadership capability and the impact it has on the organization. YOU WILL LEARN: An innovative approach to defining and developing leadership; What leadership could be at your company; To embrace leadership development at all levels.

Moderator: Chris Bond, CEO, Bluewater Learning, LLC
Panelists: Joe DiDonato, Elearning! Media Group, Veronica Zaman, Vice President, Scripps Health, Mark Prasatik, Vice President, BP
Every learning or talent system selection is different. Yet one item is common. The selection project must be driven by the needs of the business. If your system capabilities and business needs are mismatched your learning or talent system implementation will not be successful. YOU WILL LEARN: The approach and process to indentifying your organization’s business needs; How to develop the business case to support the funding of your project; How to enable needs of the business to drive the selection of your new learning or talent system. This session will provide practical application, templates and instruction for how you move your selection process forward.

LMS & TMS Series Part 2: What You Need to Know BEFORE Buying a System (The Secrets to a Successful Implementation)
Speakers: Chris Bond, CEO, Bluewater Learning, LLC and Casey Arens, Director, Alliance Data Corporation
Casey and Chris will lead the conversation and discuss what Casey wishes she knew about implementation prior to the purchase of their LMS.

It is not just about the selection and purchase, but about how the ability to implement the system might impact your decision making. It is also important to understand your real cost of implementation, timelines, and basic information that can trip you up in the process. YOU WILL LEARN: How to discuss implementation with your vendor during the purchase process; How to identify the real costs of implementation; How to identify the impact of implementation on your business; How to find helpful implementation assistance. After this session you should have a clear foundation for understanding implementation prior to your purchase process.

Let the Games Begin!: Gamification & Learning
Speaker: Robert Gadd, President & Chief Mobile Officer, OnPoint Digital
Explore how ‘gamification’ - the use of game mechanics & theories in non-game settings to drive business outcomes - is changing how we learn and work. YOU WILL LEARN: How to easily add gaming layers to formal and informal learning; How leader boards, points & badges drive engagement; Where to find tools for gaming.

Market Your Learning with Flair: 100% Employee Participation Rocks!
Speaker: Derek Cunard, Dean, American Heart University, American Heart Association
Named #1 in the 2012 Learning! 100, the American Heart University (AHU) is celebrating unheard of success in providing online learning to employees and volunteers. With most of AHU’s learning taking place online, it takes clear strategy, enthusiasm and style to engage our learners. As Dean of AHU and self-proclaimed “cheer captain”, Derek Cunard will present a step-by-step, foot-stomping, multi-media overview on how his team has inspired and achieved 100% participation in learning. You will leave with a clear understand of: How to define and sell your organization's powerful “learning promise” - with flair; Key steps to creating a credible and fun marketing campaign to encourage a culture of learning; Designing and launching innovative multi-media learning promotions that engage and inspire your employees to attend.

Lights, Camera, Action! Ferrari Studios Tour & Workshop
Over 4 billion videos are viewed on YouTube per day. Take your content to this next level.
Attend this workshop and learn the do’s and don’ts of video production from a professional producer.
You are the producer, actor and script writer in this full day workshop and studio tour. Phil Ferrari, Producer, will lead a team through the process of creating a video commercial. From script writing, talent recruitment, live video production, editing and collaboration, you will experience both sides of the camera.

As a participant, you will:
>>> Select script themes, roles and style of video production at planning session on Thursday at 3 PM
>>> Participate in studio tour and demo giving a “show and tell” of studio techniques based on the script options.
>>> Assume role in this interactive project to produce a video based on the scripts provided
>>> Review fundamentals of editing, graphics and delivery via edit demo station
>>> Deliver a finished video including a “Making of” video look at the two days.

All participants in the workshop should attend Ferrari’s session Thursday at 2 PM and stay for a working group meeting Thursday at 3 PM to assume roles for the workshop on Friday. You can be as active as you wish or participate as an observer.
Bus will depart Friday at 9:00 AM from Hyatt Regency Irvine and return by 4 PM. Lunch is included in workshop. This session qualifies for 15 credits from Elearning! Institute.
The Enterprise Learning! Conference & Expo will take place at the Hyatt Regency Irvine in Southern California – Only minutes away from John Wayne Airport.
