Tannenbaum Helpern's Vincent J. Syracuse joins NYSBA's Committee on Continuing Legal Education

New York, NY, July 30, 2012—An active educator and supporter of continuing legal education for legal professionals, Vincent J. Syracuse, chair of Tannenbaum Helpern's Litigation & Dispute Resolution practice, has been appointed as a member of the New York State Bar Association's (NYSBA) Committee on Continuing Legal Education. As a member, he will help shape the quality of legal programs and activities that are used by the legal profession in New York State.

As a former chair of the NYSBA's Commercial & Federal Litigation Section and member of the House of Delegates, Vincent is no stranger to the NYSBA or a novice in developing high quality programs. Vincent has been active in numerous bar association activities and frequently chairs or serves as a faculty member in continuing legal education programs on various commercial litigation topics. He has chaired the NYSBA's acclaimed program on ethics and civility in litigation for more than 13 years. Additionally, he is a member of the Ethics Commission for the Unified Court System, a member of the Advisory Committee for the Commercial Division of the Supreme Court of New York State, a member of the NYSBA's Committee on Attorney Professionalism and writes NYSBA Journal's The Attorney Professionalism Forum.

Vincent is a skilled litigator with more than 40 years of experience who earns a reputation among peers, adversaries and clients as a strategic problem-solver, tactician and an aggressive advocate for clients.
