

10,000 Free Conferencing Minutes for New Nonprofit Customers

As a conference call service for nonprofits, ConferenceSuite invites all nonprofit organizations to try our conference call service absolutely free. For a limited time only, when your organization signs up for a new on demand plus conferencing conference call account, you not only get 2,000 free conference call minutes instantly applied to your account, but four others within your organization will also receive 2,000 free conference call minutes. That's up to 10,000 free audio conferencing minutes that can be shared between five (5) people/departments during your first month as a new ConferenceSuite customer.

High Quality Toll Free Audio Conferencing

Enjoy high quality toll free conference calling with On Demand Plus. Host conference calls any time you need, from any phone with up to 125 participants. Simply dial your assigned toll free number and enter your unique Moderator passcode to instantly begin a conference call.

A Smart Conference Call Service at your Fingertips

ConferenceSuite's On Demand Plus conferencing conference call service gives your organization the tools to easily manage conference call participants from your telephone key pad or from a Live Audio Conference Call Manager web tool. Easily lock your conference call to restrict access from late or uninvited guest and record the audio conference, download and share your call recording across social networks.

Host A Variety of Meetings

- Hold Committee Meetings
- Plan Global Outreach Programs
- Arrange Board Meetings
- Connect Dispersed Sales Teams
- Organize Emergency Response Teams
- Conduct National Training Initiatives

What You Need to Know

Your new account must be established by December 31, 2012. If your new account is established after December 31, 2012, you will be billed no more than $0.04/per minute per participant for On Demand Plus conferencing conference calls.